

CONFIDENCE OF THE MOB

By Edward Manfred Inserra III

"A gripping, true-life account of family, loyalty, Government corruption, and the life of Fred G. Pastore."

About the Book

Confidence of The Mob is a compelling biographical memoir that dives deep into the life and times of Fred G. Pastore. Written from the unique perspective of his grandson, the book explores how a man who was the number one weapon against organized crime, turned against the IRS and advised the men he once targeted while at the IRS. Perfect for fans of true crime, 20th-century history, and rich family sagas, this book offers an authentic look at a world rarely seen from the inside.

Marketing & Platform

Local Connection: The author is a local Woburn resident with a built-in community network.

Multimedia Tie-In: The book is supported by an active, accompanying podcast and media project under the same title, driving continuous reader interest and engagement.

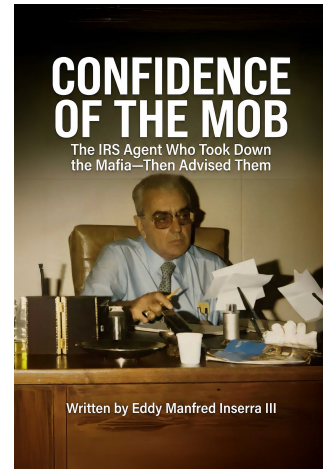

Recent Release: Freshly published in February 2026, capturing new-release momentum.

Target Audience

Readers of True Crime & Organized Crime History

Fans of Memoirs and Biographies

Local History Enthusiasts

About the Author

Eddy Inserra is a Woburn, Massachusetts-based author, entrepreneur, and technology product leader. Inspired by his family's history, he dedicated himself to over ten years researching and documenting the life of his grandfather to preserve his story for a wider audience.

Book Details

Title: Confidence of The Mob

Author: Edward Manfred Inserra III

Publication Date: February 26th 2026

Format: Paperback and Hardcover

Page Count: 198

Retail Price: $16.99 and $24.99

ISBN-13: Paperback - 979-8-9950804-0-4 | Hardcover - 979-8-9950804-1-1

Wholesale Discount: 55% discount / available on consignment

Contact & Ordering | Email: pr@confidenceofthemob.com | Phone: +1 (617) 466-9755

Website: <https://ConfidenceofTheMob.com>